

COURSE OUTCOME OF ECONOMICS

Course: 1. Micro Economic

- CO1. This course will provide the students foundation for economic analysis and problem solving skills.
- CO2. This course will provide the students potential to analyse consumer behaviour and consumer decisions.
- CO3. This course will provide the students ability to solve basic micro economic problems.
- CO4. This course will provide the students a thorough understanding on firm's production processes and decisions.
- CO5. This course will enable the students to understand market and factor pricing patterns.
- CO6. This course will make the students understand the behavioural pattern of consumers in various market situations.
- CO7. This course will familiarise the students with Welfare Economics.
- CO8. This course will enable the students to use economic tools and principles in the analysis of economic policies.

Course: 2. Indian Economy

- CO1. This course will provide the students a thorough understanding on Indian Economic System.
- CO2. This course will provide the students, knowledge about the policy issues relating to economy of India.
- CO3. This course will help the students to know about the structural adjustment program and the transformation of the Indian economy.
- CO4. This course will enable the students to know about the sectoral contributions to the growth of the Indian economy.
- CO5. This course will provide the students an understanding about the magnitude of poverty and inequality and make them aware about the need for social concern.

Course: 3. Macro Economics

- CO1. This course will provide the students a thorough understanding of economic issues and their application in macro perspectives.
- CO2. This course will provide the students an understanding of system of accounts of Government of India.
- CO3. This course will help the students to understand and compare a closed economy and open economy adjustment mechanism.

CO4. This course will enable the students to understand the difference between NI accounting and green accounting.

CO5. This course will provide the students an insight for sustainable future.

CO6. This course will provide the students understanding of system of international financial supporting organisation.

Course: 4. Money, Banking and Public Finance

CO1. This course will provide the students an understanding of role of money in different economies.

CO2. This course will provide the students an understanding banking system and their functions.

CO3. This course will provide the students knowledge about the budget and fiscal policies.

CO4. This course will enable the students to know about the working of the public finance system.

CO5. This course will enable the students to analyse various issues between centre and state governments.

CO6. This course will provide the students an understanding of the impact of public policies on allocation of resources and distribution of income.

Course: 5. Development and Environmental Economics

CO1. This course will acquaint the students with the basic concepts and issues of growth and development.

CO2. This course will provide the students an insight into the modern approaches to economic development.

CO3. This course will provide the students, knowledge about Human Development Indicators and their role in designing development programmes.

CO4. This course will provide the students an insight into the need for sustainable economic development.

CO5. This course will enable the students to protect the environment while promoting development.

CO6. This course will enable the students to acquire the skills of solving environmental problems.

CO7. This course will provide the students an understanding of renewable and non-renewable resources.

Course: 6. Statistical Methods

CO1. . This course will provide the students an understanding of Statistical data and method of data collection.

CO2. . This course will provide the students an understanding of Classification, Tabulation and Diagrammatic presentation of data.

CO3. This course will provide the students an understanding of various methods of calculation of data and their interpretation.

CO4. This course will provide the students an understanding of casual connections between two series or group.

CO5. This course will provide the students an understanding of time series data.